The woodwind quintet is one of the most versatile small ensembles in the Band of the United States Air Force Reserve. The ensemble consists of five highly trained and talented soloists who endeavor to create the most cohesive and enjoyable sound possible. The group's repertoire includes classical, jazz and contemporary music which showcases its musical diversity. Each member of the group is a soloist in his or her own right and together they render the perfect blend of tone color and musicianship.

The group's inherent flexibility enables them to perform in a variety of functions, ranging from dinner music for official military and ambassadorial ceremonies to recruiting concerts throughout the Southeastern United States and the Caribbean. The woodwind quintet represents more than 375,000 citizen airmen around the world who diligently watch over the skies protecting and defending all those who cherish freedom.

The members of the woodwind quintet are active duty professional Air Force musicians working in support of the Air Force Reserve and Air Force Recruiting and community relations objectives.
